Welcome to GOLD Programs

Got ideas?

Contact Anu, Ancil or Ralph
GOLD Charge: Staff Engagement

1. Plan programs that reflect the Libraries’ commitment to diversity: staff training; guest speakers; highlight the Libraries’ collections promoting diversity; community building events.

2. Encourage staff engagement in diversity initiatives.

3. Collaborate and build coalitions with the University and community groups that support and celebrate diversity.
2015 Events

Two large events in Kislak Pavilion with guest speakers

• Play Nice in the Sandbox
  – April 15

• Aim for Connection not Perfection
  – October 28

Small group event on February 18, 11 am
Our goals

• Learn to appreciate / understand the people around us
• Change our local culture to be more inclusive than it is now
• Focus on the future culture we will create together
Our concepts

• Difficult conversations are often the most important
• What is small to you may be big to another person
• Talking about microaggressions
Exploring Identity

Molly McGlone

February 18
11 am
Play Nice in the Sandbox

April 15, 2015 2 pm
Aim for Connection
Not Perfection

October 28, 2015
2 pm
The Thread

A place to share ideas, reflections and video vignettes
Join us! We need you!

Sign up now!